

BOSTON COLLEGE
ARCHIVES

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

CHESTNUT HILL 67

MASSACHUSETTS

BRANFORD COLLEGE
ARCHIVES

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2011 with funding from Boston Library Consortium Member Libraries

<http://www.archive.org/details/alumnireview32bost>

The ALUMNI REVIEW

Published By BOSTON COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 2

MAY, 1936

"Silas The Chore Boy" to be Given By The Alumni Players on May 6

"Silas the Chore Boy," a melodramatic mirthquake of the century, a heart-rending episode of the gay nineties, in three acts, will be presented by the Boston College Alumni Association Dramatic Club at the Public Latin School Auditorium, located on Avenue Louis Pasteur, in the Fenway, Boston, on Wednesday, May 6, at 8 o'clock.

If you should happen to be troubled with "pink tooth brush," athlete's foot, insomnia, dandruff or astigmatism, or if you are a sufferer from melancholia, granulated eye-lids, snuffles or ear trouble; if you are irritable or quick tempered, or if you have coffee nerves; if your mother-in-law has been visiting you and telling you where to get off; if you are a victim of Narragansett fever or Suffolk Downs blood pressure, if you wear bunions, corns, warts, chillblains, or any other ills that beset mankind in this vale of tears — there is one panacea, one cure-all which will remove instantly any sign of your multitude of complaints. That is

"Silas the Chore Boy," is a hilarious melodrama of the ages, a guaranteed restorer of vim and vitality.

(Continued on Page 8)

Back Row—left to right: Duke Pavone '34; Ray Cullen '33; John Kelly '33; John Hanrahan '33; Steve Patten '25; Frank Connor '33; Joe Kelley '32; John Lynch '27; Jack Kelly '30; Front row—left to right: Bill McKenney '15; Jimmy Hickey '26; Bill Ohrenberger '27; Charley Fitzgerald '17.

Dr. O' Connor Reviews Briefly Accomplishments Of Past Year

Closely Knit Association of Local Chapters of the Alumni Organization Well Under-Way -- Numerous Activities of the Alumni Being Coordinated Rapidly

By Dr. Cornelius T. O'Connor

The program outlined last Alumni Day was so well received that throughout the year the officers of the Association have attempted to adhere closely to these plans. The main object was to form a closely knit association of local chapters, and the work in this direction has progressed well. A glance at the activities of the various chapters listed in this issue demonstrates this. A standard constitution was furnished to all the chapters and this constitution was revised, in April, by the presidents of twelve local chapters. The local chapters showed enough interest to warrant the proposed change in the main constitution of the Alumni Association which will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Alumni Review.

There are now about 1000 paid-up members of the Alumni Association. The alumni list has been built from about 3000 names to about 5000. The list is now practically complete for our graduates. Next year we hope that the "ex-men" will be added. The cost of this work is not inconsiderable. We hope more men will pay.

Two sports nights were held at the College. We hope that next year the officers of the Association will utilize, as entertainment, the talented members of the Alumni Association, and use some other hall than the library auditorium of the College which is, of course, used for masses, and does not seem to be quite suitable for a sports night.

We promised entertainments of a cultural and intellectual nature, and to this end three concerts were presented by the Association in the beautiful library auditorium. These were not supported by the mass of the alumni nor the students, although the calibre of the concerts was of the highest.

We had hoped to establish an advisory council for the undergraduates, each alumnus acting as personal advisor for several undergraduates, but we were unable to begin this program this year.

We promised to publish the Review six or eight times, but to print it more than twice this year, would have necessitated an expense too great for the present, in view of the money that had to be spent in office equipment, salaries, proper indexing of alumni, mailing of the many notices that went out to the alumni this year, etc.

The football dance was held as usual at the Hotel Staler. Next year it will be held at the Bradford Hotel because the number of people who go now is so great that all cannot be accommodated within the hall itself, except at the Bradford Hotel which has the largest ballroom of this type in Boston.

The spiritual program of the Alumni Association has been fulfilled by the establishment, through the great generosity and vision of Father Rector, of the Bellarmine House in Cohasset for week-end retreats. The West Roxbury and Cambridge chapters, and classes such as the Class of 1916, have attended these retreats. These retreats are open not only to alumni but to friends of the alumni. Your officers strongly urge the local chapters and classes to form groups next year with their friends. Father Tivnan and Father Logue, directors of these retreats, are masters in this field of work.

The officers had planned to have the classes come out in five year groups, the older classes in ten or fifteen year groups, but the response of the local chapters to the idea of an annual communion breakfast was so excellent that it was felt unnecessary to make any further attempt to have the classes come here. Some of the classes have, as in the past, held an annual communion breakfast. About thirteen of the local chapters have had annual communion breakfasts. The growth of discussion groups of the National Catholic Alumni Federation has not been noteworthy.

There has been established an alumni dramatic group which is presenting its first play this year. We hope more alumni will become members of this group. There was an attempt to establish an alumni choral group and orchestra, but there has been no response as yet. Those interested in either of the latter two groups should send their names to the alumni office.

"Silas the Chore Boy," the year's funniest performance. You will have more fun than ever before. Don't miss it.

Send your dues in now, and you will receive a membership card which entitles you to vote for the Alumni officers on Alumni Day. Be in good standing.

Geo. Paul Smith, '25

Agency Director

New York Life
Insurance Company

Covering

Eastern Massachusetts

89 Broad St., Boston
Phone Hubbard 3260

Dunham

Chevrolet Co.

"A Ride Is Worth a Thousand Words"

Open Evenings

Tel. N. N. 5620
431 Washington St.
Newton Corner

Cambridge Club Has Been Long Active For College

Organized 28 Years Ago, This Unit Has Always Been Foremost in Promoting the Best Interests of the Alumni and Alma Mater

by

David E. Hockman
Thomas J. O'Loughlin

Fifteen Boston College graduates residing in Cambridge organized on April 30, 1908, the Boston College Club of Cambridge, the first sectional club of the alumni of B. C. Among that pioneering group were Edward J. Brandon, '83, father of Edmund J. Brandon, '15, Dr. Francis J. Barnes, the Rev. John J. Ryan, the Rev. Michael J. Doody, Dr. Eugene McCarthy, Francis J. Carney, James J. Aylward, and Francis R. Mullin. Such were the men who founded the Cambridge Boston College Club, declaring that, "the object of the Club is to foster in all legitimate and practical ways the interest of Boston College."

About the same time the Rev. Thomas I. Gasson, S. J., President of the College, (then on James St.) with a keen realization of the rapid growth which the College was to have in the near future, began to make ambitious plans for a Greater Boston College. Seeing the potentialities of the present site at Chestnut Hill, he obtained the land and selected the plan which the well known Boston architect Charles Maginnis, submitted.

In order to help Father Gasson realize his dream, the Cambridge Club by a succession of activities, contributed substantial amounts to the Building Fund. The club realized over $1000 at the first garden party held on the new college grounds in June 1908. Large amounts were received from the production in Aquinas Hall, Cambridge, of such Shakespearean plays as "Hamlet" produced in 1909; "Merchant of Venice" in 1910; "Macbeth" in 1911; and "Richard III" in 1913. The returns from these productions together with donations from Alumni and generous friends of the college, hastened the work on the administration building with its crowning glory, the beautiful tower fashioned on the tower of Magdalen College, Oxford.

During the War the Club held no meetings. Although the organization was intact after the War, the activities diminished until 1923 when under the presidency of Francis J. Roche, the Club was rejuvenated. The membership increased greatly and the Club broadened the field of its activities under the leadership of such succeeding presidents as Charles F. Hurley, John M. Tobin and Martin F. O'Connor.

(Continued on Page 13)

Charlestown Club Sponsors A Series Of Fine Activities

William L. Meade, '32, Heads
Lively Organization—Spring
Ball Being Planned

By Charles E. Anadore, '34

With elaborate preparations for a banner social year the Boston College Club of Charlestown has again resumed activity and looms up as the largest unit ever to represent the college in Charlestown. Last September, an energetic group of officers were elected to pilot the destinies of the organization for 1936. William L. Meade, '32, was elected president; Charles Greely, '35, vice president; Henry J. McArdle, '35, treasurer, and Edward A. Aaron, '32, secretary.

The initial event on the program was a Dutch Supper held Monday evening, March 9, at the Bunker Hill Council, K. of C. Clubhouse. Melvin A. McCully was chairman of the affair. This was met with tremendous approval by the members and their legion of friends in the district who support the club in all its endeavors. Among the principal speakers at the supper were: Rev. Martin P. Harney, S. J., Dr. Cornelius T. O'Connor, president of the B. C. Alumni Association; Coach Harry Downes and Henry J. Smith, treasurer of the B. C. Alumni Association and member of the Boston School Committee.

The second function took the form of a communion breakfast on Palm Sunday morning in the K. of C. dining hall following the reception of Holy Communion by the members in a body at the 9 o'clock Mass in St. Mary's Church. The Rev. Andrew J. White celebrated the Mass. A splendid array of speakers was arranged by the committee. Among these guests were: the Rev. James Finan, professor of Apologetics at

(Continued on Page 19)

COMPLIMENTS OF

Francis T. Leahy

40 COURT STREET
BOSTON, MASS.

ALUMNI BADGES

are available
at the alumni office
Durable, attractive, in college colors, for use
at all B. C. functions, with card for your name and class.

Ten Cents

The Alumni Review

Published by the Boston College Alumni Association, Subscription $1 a year included in Alumni dues.

VOL. 3., NO. 2

MAY, 1936

Subscription $1. a year, included in Alumni dues. To be published eight times during the year at Boston College, by the Boston College Alumni Association. Entered as second class matter, September 28, 1933 at the Post Office at Boston, Mass., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEXT ALUMNI DAY

The alumni of Boston College should plan to make the 1936 Commencement week a week of reunion at University Heights. Alumni Day should be a day of pilgrimage to the college which trained you. It should be a day when all business and all care is forgotten, to return to the college in the spirit of loyalty to alma mater and good fellowship.

All who attended "The Commencement of 1885" presented by our alumni players under the direction of Bill McKenney, '15, will long remember the joy and enthusiasm aroused last Alumni Day, when the rollicking thespians appeared on the stage. Everyone admits last year's Alumni Day was the gayest ever seen at the Heights. This year's production will surpass last year's, and no alumnus should miss it.

One day devoted to the alumni association, and to the college is not too much to expect of any alumnus. Greet your old classmates in the spirit of college days, make new friends, visit the buildings at the Heights. You will find many of your former professors here for the great day, men you haven't seen for years. It will be a day of reunion for all. There are to be no long addresses. The president will make a short speech, the treasurer will give his report, and a very short business meeting will take place. The major part of the day will be devoted to reunions, election of officers, the traditional baseball classic with Holy Cross, the supper, and the presentation of a Greek tragedy (in modern high English) by the Alumni Dramatic Club under William Belasco McKenney, '15.

There will be an innovation this year which all will enjoy. Instead of the dinner, a hot buffet supper will be served immediately after the business meeting. The reunion has grown so large, there is hardly a tent big enough to hold the crowd comfortably on Alumni Day. This year the various classes will be gathered in different parts of the Tower Building where the supper will be served, and where groups from various clubs and classes will have an opportunity to meet.

The menu will be most attractive, as is customary, and a day of real enjoyment is being planned. June 8 is Alumni Day. Out of town men should make this an occasion for a return to old scenes, to turn back the hands of time a little and get reacquainted with the scenes of other years, which are after all, the happiest years of one's life.

PLACEMENT OF ALUMNI

Some of the Alumni have cooperated with the alumni office in the past six months in the placement of our graduates. A large number of our young men have been interviewed by various executives during the year, many of them obtaining places, and it is our hope that this work will continue.

Jobs have been offered to young graduates, some of which were attractive openings, others were not so good. All of the men who registered with the alumni showed a willingness to do almost anything, in order to get work. We are indeed thankful that those in real need were very few.

If the graduates will take the employment idea seriously, the officers feel certain that good results will follow. The alumni office will cooperate fully in obtaining the right man for the right place, if the individual members of the alumni will be good enough to aid in this work.

Please remember your dues are only $2.50 a year. Only those who pay their dues are members of the Alumni Association with the privilege of voting on Alumni Day.

A Mutual Savings Bank

operated for the benefit of its depositors. Deposits accepted from $1 to $4,000 on individual accounts, up to $8,000 on joint accounts. These deposits may be left to accumulate at interest till the respective totals are $8,000 and $16,000.

Assets Over $26,000,000

UNION SAVINGS BANK

216 Tremont St., Boston

Between Boylston & Stuart Sts.

Tel. HANcock 7990-7991-7992

TICKETS

for

Dramatic Club's

production of

"Silas
the Chore Boy"

may be had by calling
the Alumni Office,
Center Newton 3356

Tickets

$1.10

Small Hyde Park Unit Organizes A Scholarship At Boston College

Regular Monthly Meetings Now Being Held by Strong and Enthusiastic Chapter of the Alumni Association

Although the Hyde Park-Mattapan-Readville alumni unit is amazingly modest with regard to its achievements during the last year and says that it has performed "nothing spectacular," yet in its quiet way it has laid a remarkably strong foundation for its future activities and may well point with pride to the activities in which it has thus far engaged.

In the first place, the Hyde Park organization has established a four year scholarship for an outstanding high school graduate in the community, and, in the second place, it has successfully financed this scholarship during the one year it has existed. While the majority of local alumni units are enthusiastic over scholarships, the Hyde Park club has, in a business-like fashion, succeeded in making the idea of a scholarship its first goal and its first achievement.

During the last year the unit has held regular monthly meetings at which there has been an average attendance of about thirty members. Not only has it met monthly at the Newman Hall in St. Raphael's School, Hyde Park, but it has also successfully conducted two communion breakfasts, two bridge parties and a football smoker. All these activities were exceptionally well attended.

While the unit is made up mainly of recent graduates and undergraduates, the fact that its membership is predominantly youthful indicates a long and vigorous life and persistent growth during the coming years.

The officers of the unit are: John J. Buckley, '27, Hyde Park, president; Francis X. Mitchell, '32, Mattapan, vice president; Francis Early, '33, Readville, treasurer; J. Frank Scannell, '36, Hyde Park, secretary.

Outstanding among the older alumni members are: Dr. Charles F. Stack, Hyde Park physician; Philip Covey, Boston realtor; Walter Winston, head master of the Michael Angelo School district in Boston; Henry E. Foley, corporation counsel for the City of Boston and William F. Mack, head master of the Henry Grew School district in Hyde Park.

Father Gilleran Asks Alumni For Victrola Records

Victrola records are wanted. The Rev. Leo Gilleran, S. J., asks the alumni of Boston College for records, particularly classical pieces, which can be used in the music appreciation courses at Boston College. Father Gilleran has a fine reproducing machine and illustrates his courses by the use of records, both vocal and instrumental.

With the increased popularity of the radio, Father Gilleran feels that many persons may have stored away numerous records, which are now serving no purpose, and which would be of valuable assistance to him in his work at the college.

The music appreciation courses have become extremely popular at the college, classes being conducted in the Philomatheia building, suitably built for the purpose, and providing the proper atmosphere for such work.

Any members of the Alumni Association who are willing to give records to Father Gilleran, are asked to send them direct to him, at St. Mary's Hall, or to leave them with the Alumni Secretary in the tower Building.

The attention of the Alumni, and Boston College clubs is called also to the fact that Father Gilleran gives a very excellent music appreciation lecture, illustrated by selections played by accomplished musicians. He wishes to announce to the Alumni through the Review that he will be pleased to meet any members interested in having such a lecture before the clubs.

Compliments
of

MIKE FAYE, '21

COOLIDGE CORNER

CHEVROLET

Since 1880

MOVING

PACKING

SHIPPING

STORING

T. G. BUCKLEY CO.

690 Dudley Street Boston

CALL COLUMBIA 4400

Boston Agents — Allied Van Lines

W. Roxbury Club Plans Retreat For Members

Dr. Francis J. Roland, president of the West Roxbury Club, has had a busy year, with numerous educational and social activities on the club calendar since last fall. From the West Roxbury Club, the Review learns of some of the numerous affairs held during the year.

December 11, 1935, Members' Night, Social and Dance; January 8, 1936, Lecture by Rev. Martin Harney, S. J., on "Modern Literature"; January 22, 1936, Presentation of B. C. Musical Clubs; February 12, 1936, Lecture by Rev. Martin Harney, S. J., on "Historic Shrines of Europe". April 24, 1936, Intercollegiate debate, Fulton Debating Society and Princeton University, followed by a dance.

The following events are planned: May, 1936, Retreat at Bellarmine House; June, 1936, Outing and Social at local country club.

A few notes about members: The club is welcoming to the district Frank D. Shea, formerly of Milton; Bill Kirby, formerly of Hyde Park; Tim Cronin and Jerry Mahoney, formerly of Dorchester; Bill Carey, 1918, is Commander of the Joyce Kilmer Post of the American Legion (Public Schoolteachers Post); Dr. Fred J. Gillis recently upheld the highest traditions of the Boston School Dept. in his appearance and address at the National Association Convention in St. Louis; Eugene L. McLaughlin has been recently appointed Junior Master at the High School of Commerce.

Officers of the club are: president, Francis J. Roland, 10 State st, Boston; vice president, Gregory Sullivan, 7 Alveston st, Jamaica Plain, and John O'Brien, 18 Asticou rd, Forest Hills; secretary, Robert Miller, 113 Tyndale st, Roslindale; treasurers, James R. Brawley, 60 LaGrange st, West Roxbury, Dennis A. Dooley, 24 Castleton st, Jamaica Plain, Louis A. White, 38 Louders lane, Jamaica Plain, John J. Roach, Jr., 52 Wyclif ave, West Roxbury.

Annual Ball of the Cambridge Club on May 15 at the Continental. One of the big social events of the year. Don't miss it.

NEW ENGLAND FINANCIAL SERVICE

244 WASHINGTON STREET
BOSTON, MASS.

We Are In A Position To

Advise Clients Relative

To Their Investments --

On A Service Charge Basis

LOUIS J. O'MALLEY, Pres.

CHAS. D. O'MALLEY, V. P. & Treas.

April, 1936.

Report Of The Nominating Committee

The 1936 nominating committee, headed by Frank J. Roland, president of the West Roxbury Club, met March 16, 1936, and adopted a motion to "spread" nominations for Alumni offices, as far as practicable, geographically and according to classes. The committee decided to name more than one candidate for each position in order to distribute the nomination among more alumni and to arouse greater interest in the annual business meeting. The following nominations were made, and will be offered for election on Alumni Day. The voting will be by ballot.

For President (Vote for One)

Cornelius T. O'Connor 1920 — Cambridge

For First Vice-President (Vote for One)

Thomas L. Gannon 1913 — Beachmont

Gerald F. Coughlin 1923 — Dorchester

J. Burke Sullivan 1924 — Jamaica Plain

For Second Vice-President (Vote for One)

Timothy A. O'Leary 1892 — Lynn

William T. Miller 1904 — Roslindale

Joseph A. Comber 1923 — Lawrence

For Treasurer (Vote for One)

John J. Walsh 1915 — Jamaica Plain

Paul R. Foisy 1922 — Lowell

William J. Barry 1923 — Roxbury

For Secretary (Vote for One)

Walter A. Conway 1924 — Salem

Frederick A. McDermott 1927 — Allston

William E. Ryan 1929 — Brighton

For Board of Directors (Vote for One)

Joseph A. McAvinnue 1919 — Lowell

Jeremiah W. Mahoney 1921 — West Roxbury

William J. Koen 1930 — Salem

For Graduate Athletic Board (Vote for Two)

Daniel J. Donovan (Rev.) 1916 — Brighton

Thomas J. Cunney 1918 — Salem

Thomas F. Scanlon 1920 — Belmont

Walter J. Markham 1922 — Lowell

Warren P. McGuirk 1929 — Malden

The members of the Nominating Committee wish it to be a matter of record that re-nomination was offered to Henry J. Smith, Treasurer, and to Charles F. Hurley, a member of the Board of Directors, both of whom respectfully declined the honor.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE OF THE BOSTON COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

By FRANCIS J. ROLAND, 1919,

CHAIRMAN.

CYLCON FENCE

FENCES OF COPPER BEARING STEEL

for Residences, Estates, Factories, Schools, Playgrounds, Municipal Property

Fencing of Wire, Wrought Iron, or Wood for every purpose. Estimates furnished and advisory assistance rendered without obligation. Local stocks and erection crews maintained for immediate service.

Security Fence Company

22 KENT STREET, SOMERVILLE

Telephone, SOMerset 3900

YOUR REVIEW

The President of the Alumni pointed out in his address printed in the first issue of the review "That this is your magazine." The alumni "must furnish both the news and the articles", if we are to have an interesting, newsy periodical. The Editorial Board is entirely dependent in this respect upon Class Secretaries and Class officers.

Send a postal to the Alumni Office, stating whether or not you will attend the Alumni Day festivities at the College.

"Silas, the Chore Boy"

(Continued from Page 1)

By special request of the hundreds of our distinguished alumni who sat convulsed at that famous spectacle on the night of our last great Alumni Day, "The Commencement of 1885," the same cast augmented by other illustrious alumni thespians, will present for the edification of the alumni band friends (and incidentally for the benefit of the alumni treasury) the funniest farce Boston has ever seen.

"Silas the Chore Boy," is a hilarious hodge-podge of hokum and homicide, with Bill McKenney, '15, the producer extraordinaire directing the offering. Mr. McKenney, whose services are widely sought after, from here to Hollywood and back, has again consented to appear before our Boston College public with this inimitable cast of actors and actresses. In addition, he has discovered a wealth of hidden talent among many of the most staid and dignified graduates of our college, men whose ability to dance is only exceeded by their singing.

Just imagine Bill Ohrenberger, '27, as the dauntless hero; Jimmy Hickey, '30, as the heroine; Charlie Fitzgerald, '17, as the father; Jerry Slattery, '24, in the title role; Bill Marnell, '27, as the old maid aunt; Frank McCrehan, '25, as the sheriff; Ray "Hago" Harrington, '33, as the villain; Nat Hasensufus, '19, as the sister, and Ray Callen, '34, as the servant.

In addition to this superb cast there will be in other important roles, John Lynch, '27, Steve Patten, '25, Frank Repetto, '32, the Alumni Quartet, and the most famous dancers in Boston College history, Tom Harty, Al Fitzgerald, Arthur Doherty, Kewpie Kilroy and John McGillivray in a special routine.

Others assisting in a breath-taking interlude include Eddie Sullivan, '14, who will give that thrilling recitation, "The Cremation of Dan McGrew." John Hanrahan, '34, is the stage manager, Jack Kelley, accompanist, and in charge of the entire production will be none other than Bill McKenney.

If any alumnus needs further proof of why he should attend this extraordinary performance, the following endorsements are offered:

"If laughs were a dollar each only John D. Rockefeller could witness the performance."—Percy Hammond.

"One night of this is worth more than Ten Nights in a Barroom."—Burns Mantle.

"See Ohrenberger and collapse."—Gilbert Gabriel.

"The management should give out free samples of Sloan's liniment. My sides ached from laughing."—Elliott Norton.

"Perfect risibility for May 6."—E. B. Rideout.

"The plot was so hair-raising, Morgan Ryan should positively see it."—George Holland.

"Even I laughed out loud." — Gil Dobie.

"I haven't laughed so much since Jack Benny played 'Love in Bloom.'" — Fred Allen.

"Ay tank it's swell."—Greta Garbo.
"It's terrific. Believe it or not."—Robert Ripley.

"There's been nothing funnier since Ike Boone played right field for the Red Sox."—Bob Quinn.

"I hope it enjoys a long run." — Johnny Kelly, marathoner.

"I have only one fault to find. They should have shot Frank Jones instead of the villain."—Billy Frasier.

"Deserves the Pulitzer Prize." — Brooks Atkinson.

"The cast interested me immensely." — Dr. Ben Godwin.

"My best bet for the sixth."—Colonel Aintree.

And countless other endorsements.

If you want to laugh as you've never laughed before. If you want to convince your wife that there is something funnier than yourself. If you want one evening of real enjoyment, come with your family and friends to "Silas the Chore Boy" at Public Latin School Wednesday, May 6. Sue us if we're wrong.

Leonard G.
Healy Co.

Engrossed and Illuminated
Resolutions Testimonials
Memorials Charters
Diplomas Certificates

LEONARD G HEALY, '22
Proprietor

170 Summer St., Boston
Liberty 1863

WEDDINGS!
DRESS CLOTHES
FOR HIRE

Discount To Wedding
Groups

E. F. P. BURNS INC.

125 Summer St.
Boston

Tel. Lib. 3572 - 3596

Compliments of

JOHN H. MORRIS & SONS

FRUIT and VEGETABLES

11 CORINTH STREET, ROSLINDALE

45 CORINTH STREET, ROSLINDALE

1896 CENTRE STREET, WEST ROXBURY

366 CENTRE STREET, JAMAICA PLAIN

368 CENTRE STREET, HYDE SQUARE

WASHINGTON STREET
AT BROOKLINE VILLAGE

REPAIRS
RENTALS
SALES

MALSBENDEN
MECHANICAL SERVICE

TYPEWRITERS
ADDING MACHINES
BOOKKEEPING and
BILLING MACHINES
SUPPLIES

F. L. Malsbenden
120 Blossom St.

Arlington, Mass. Arl. 6163-M

Compliments of

W. C. O. P.

1120 kilocycles

STUDIOS AT THE
COPLEY PLAZA HOTEL

Transmitter at Brighton, Mass.

COMMonwealth 1717

Lowell Club, Second Oldest Alumni Unit, Now Completing A Most Successful Season

Monthly Meetings Now An Important Feature of This Organization -- Mayor of City Honored by Boston College Men

The first Communion Breakfast ever to be held by the Boston College Alumni Club of Lowell was held Sunday, March 1, at St. Patrick's Church in Lowell. The mass was celebrated by the Rev. Daniel J. Sullivan who is the chaplain of the club. Special music was sung by a choir composed of members of the club with Henry T. Gilday, the regular choir director, at the organ.

Following the Mass, which was attended by approximately 100, including members of the club and undergraduates from Lowell, a breakfast was held in St. Patrick's School hall, adjacent to the church. James H. Riley, '19, president of the club, was the toastmaster. Mayor Dewey G. Archambault, a former B. C. student and a member of the club, was the guest speaker. It was one of the few times that a mayor of the city has ever attended a Communion Breakfast as a member of the organization sponsoring the breakfast.

Rev. Fr. Sullivan and the Rev. Edwin J. Carey, another Boston College man, stationed at St. Patrick's Church, also addressed the members. The priests complimented the members of the club on the splendid attendance and urged a continuance of the practice.

A most important meeting was held by the Boston College Alumni Club of Lowell on Friday of March 13 at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The undergraduates, comprising a large number, were invited to attend this meeting so that there could be a thorough discussion of the adoption of the charter of the Boston College Alumni Association, the parent body. There was a frank discussion of the various items of the charter of the parent body as each article was read by Secretary Walter J. Markam, '22.

It was finally voted to adopt the charter and thus the Boston College Club of Lowell, the second club of its kind to be formed in the history of the college, passed out of existence and the Lowell chapter of the Boston College Alumni Association became a reality. Thomas Balfrey was appointed as chairman of a special committee to study the possibility and advisability of Lowell chapter putting on a sketch for Alumni Day, as suggested to the chapter.

Plans were likewise discussed concerning the sponsoring of a telephone bridge which would be conducted for the benefit of the chapter with the actual work of operation being carried out by the wives and women friends of the members who have had considerable experience here in such an affair. It was felt wise to postpone any such action until after the Lowell Boston College Undergraduate Club had conducted its annual Easter formal on April 14 at the Andover Country Club. The Alumni agreed to make up parties to attend this formal in order to give the undergraduates every possible bit of financial support.

(Continued on Page 22)

WHITING MILK SERVICE

Covers Every Street in Greater Boston, Providence and Worcester. If You Are Not Already a WHITING Customer
Call Your Nearest Branch

Whiting Milk Companies

A Yankee Network Cast

is the making of a successful show — both for the audience and the box office.

People like to see in person the artists they hear over the air. Yankee Network artists have a big following and offer a diversity of entertainment features . . . your assurance of a popular show, a smooth, professional performance — and a sell-out.

Yankee Network artists are available for personal appearances at school, lodge, club and benefit entertainments.

Write for information to

The Yankee Network Artists Bureau

21 Brookline Avenue, Boston

BRIGHTON LAUNDRY

55 Union St. Brighton, Mass.

THE LARGEST LAUNDRY IN
THE WORLD OWNED AND OPERATED BY WOMEN

Telephone Stadium 5520-1-2

JOHN C. McDONALD

Court Finance Co.

Insurance General Agents

40 Broad St. Capitol 5485

John C. McDonald, '25

President

Alumni Organize Winthrop Club

Various Committees Already at Work in New, Active Chapter

One of the new active units of the Alumni Association has been formed in Winthrop. While it is not as large as some of the chapters, there is a strong spirit prevailing in the membership. The first meeting was called on March 1 by John A. Canavan, '18, and the name the Boston College Club of Winthrop was chosen. A fine address was given by Dr. Cornelius T. O'Connor, president of the association, and matters of general interest to Boston College men were discussed.

Various committees were appointed for the year, and it was voted to interest as many persons as possible in Boston College, so that the college would always receive from Winthrop high types of students. Placement work will be undertaken wherever possible, to assist Boston College men in obtaining positions, and to enable them to become acquainted in the community.

Members of the Winthrop Club also voted to seek a group or circle of donors for the college activities, and to endeavor to create an interest in the great educational work being done at Boston College. A membership committee has been formed so as to interest as many persons as possible in the club and in the college. Joe Barry, John Forrestal and Al Keller were appointed for this work.

The Winthrop Club also plans to support its members for school committee places, and to take an active interest in the community. The spiritual interests of the members also are thought of by this group and a communion breakfast will be held annually by the organization. It is hoped to form a women's auxiliary to the local club to further its social and educational program.

The following committees were named:

Entertainment Committee — Harry Kiley, Paul Connors, Gerard Barry.

Committee on Honorary Membership — Richard O'Connell, chairman; William Malone, Joseph Bradley.

Publicity Committee — William Malone, chairman; William Gorman, Joseph Harvey.

Malden-Medford Unit Grows Into Strong Alumni Chapter

Renewed Interest is Shown During the Year -- Father, Rector Heads List of Members of the Organization

By William J. Sullivan
President, Malden-Medford Chapter,
B. C. Alumni

The task of writing a history presents many difficulties. You have a tendency either to leave out too much or to put too much in. However, this history of the Malden-Medford Club is written in such a way, I hope, that the middle road might be followed. Whether another club has such a unique background, I do not know.

The Malden-Medford Boston College Club originated about sixteen years ago. At that time Boston College was having a drive for funds to erect new buildings on the Heights. As we all know, many cities and towns participated in this campaign. The Alumni and the undergraduates were contacted in order to interest the people in the campaign and to make certain the growth of Boston College. The Alumni of these two cities felt that they would accomplish more if they had something that would keep the name of Boston College before the people. As a result, Medford and Malden formed what at that time, was known as the Boston College Club of Medford and the Boston College Club of Malden.

These clubs were separate and distinct, one from the other. (Perhaps, I might be permitted to mention a few of the men who were present at the formation of these clubs. If I have left any names out, it is not intended, but because of the long period of time which has elapsed, I have forgotten some names.) At the organization of the Medford Club were such fine and enthusiastic men, as George Kelley, William Ward, Dr. John W. Gahan, Charles Donnellan, Myles McSweeney, Dr. Leonard Morrissey, and in Malden, the same spirit prevailed with the following attending: (John Curtin, Jerry O'Brien, Father Joseph Healy, William J. Sullivan, Joseph Tribble, Walter Kelliher, Father Henry Evers, and many more.)

Enthusiasm Kept Alive

The drive having been ended and likewise successful, the great enthusiasm which attended the drive, soon diminished. The Alumni gradually became less interested in the doings of the Club feeling, as they did at that time, that the club had served the purpose for which it was formed. The undergraduates, however, never allowed these separate clubs to die entirely, but, by having socials and entertainments, kept alive the small spark of enthusiasm, which had been passed on to them each year.

(Continued on Page 23)

Main Office 110 Norway Street, Boston

DISTINGUISHED CATERING

LUNCHEONS TEAS DINNERS
WEDDING RECEPTIONS

Telephone Commonwealth 2422

A QUAIN T NEW ENGLAND HOUSE

LUNCHEONS — TEAS — DINNERS

OPEN ALL YEAR

Framingham Centre — Route 9

SEILER'S 1775 HOUSE

LUNCHEONS

Lexington

TEAS

Route 2

DINNERS

SEILER'S TEN ACRES

LUNCHEONS

TEAS

DINNERS

Route 20 Wayland

LATE SUPPERS

DANCING TO JACK MARSHARD'S ORCHESTRA

SEILER'S RECREATION GROUNDS AT TEN ACRES

SEILER'S INC.

RESTAURANT

AT WELLESLEY SQUARE

Dedham Club

Lawrence L. Brown, '25, has been named delegate to the Alumni Council by the B. C. Club of Dedham, now celebrating its first anniversary.

In announcing Brown's election the Dedham unit modestly submits for Alumni inspection the record of its educational, charitable and social activities of the last year. Although the unit has not yet adopted a permanent constitution, an action which it plans to take in May, it has already conducted a dinner, a lecture, a post-lenten dance and has undertaken the sizable task of providing St. Mary's Parochial School, Dedham, with an eighth grade.

Organized in April, 1935, when representatives of the college and the faculty spoke to an audience of Dedham Alumni and undergraduates concerning the necessity for strong local Alumni units, the club is now thoroughly organized and looks forward to the future with optimism and enthusiasm.

Dedham club activities began last June when a dinner was held in the Dedham High School cafeteria in order to assemble all Dedham B. C. men so as to initiate a program for 1935-36. The Rev. Jones I. J. Corrigan, S. J., professor of Ethics in the College of Arts and Sciences, was the principal speaker at this dinner and his words were warmly received. The Rev. George P. O'Connor and Joseph McCoolle also spoke.

Father Corrigan was again the guest of the Dedham club last autumn when he spoke before a large audience in the high school auditorium on the present European situation, which he had studied on the Continent the previous summer. Since this lecture was a financial as well as an educational success, the fund for the donation of the eighth grade class room in the new St. Mary's Parochial School was auspiciously started. The class room will cost $500.

A formal post-lenten dance was held Tuesday, April 16, under the capable direction of Dr. John Carroll. This dance is expected to become an annual fixture on the club calendar, and the profits accruing from it have been placed in the class room fund. Maurice Murphy was chairman of the committee in charge of decorations and James Dunne, '32, was chairman of the ticket committee.

A communion breakfast is being planned for June, probably the unit's last activity until September.

The officers of the Dedham unit are: Lawrence L. Brown, '25, president; Lawrence Smith, '36, vice president; George Connors, '26, secretary-treasurer.

The members of the executive board are: John Heaphy, '23, Joseph O'Connell, '26, Joseph Connors, '33, Dr.

John Carroll, '27 and Nicholas De Salvo, '27. Francis R. Liddell, '35, James Connors, '36 and Francis Hunt, '38 compose the activities committee.

The Cambridge Club is sponsoring the B. C.-Holy Cross Debate, Thursday, May 7.

George
COLEMAN CO.

BOOKBINDERS and
PAPER RULERS

470 Atlantic Ave.

Boston, Mass. Tel. Lib. 4060

PHEENYS'

FLOWERS
BOOKS

CARDS
GIFTS

Consult our Horticulturist and Landscape Designer
M. Adele Clancy
on your Garden Problems

2000 Beacon Street
Cleveland Circle

Telephone: ASPinwall 7520

FOR YOUR NEW OFFICE EQUIPMENT
See

BOSTON DESK
EXCHANGE

Office Outfitters in
Wood and Steel

NEW and USED
OFFICE FURNITURE

181 Congress St.
Tel. Lib. 4475 Boston, Mass.

Boston College Work By

M. B. Foster Electric Company

Boston, Mass.

New Haven, Conn.

William St. George

John V. Quinlan

New School To Be Opened

Courses in Social Work Will Be Given Next Fall
in New Department of Boston College -- Rev.
Dr. McGuinn, S. J., Will Be the Dean

Plans for a new School of Social Work, to be opened next fall under the auspices of Boston College, have been announced by the Very Rev. Louis J. Gallagher, S. J., president of Boston College. The school will be located in Boston.

In speaking of the opening of the new school, Father Gallagher announced the appointment of the Rev. Walter McGuinn, S. J., Ph.D., as dean. Regarding the new development the rector said, "The opening of a graduate school of Social Work under the auspices of Boston College is a timely and substantial contribution to the New England community. The need of trained social workers is obvious, and the inauguration of a School of Social Work under Catholic auspices is a pressing responsibility of an institution like Boston College."

Best Type of Training

"The growth of federal, state and local agencies," he continued, "will call for the best type of training and it is the purpose of Boston College to bring the strength of its educational resources to the service of both public and private social work. The new school will be organized and conducted according to the specifications of the various professional associations and will combine all that is best in technical training with the culture of a Catholic institution.

The new school will be conducted on a graduate level, and will offer a two year-course leading to a Master's Degree in Social Work. The program will consist of academic training under teachers qualified in their respective fields and of practical experience in well recognized agencies under competent supervision.

The school will prepare its graduates for various fields of social work, Family Case Work, Child Welfare, Public Relief, Group Work, Medical Social Work, Psychiatric Social Work, Institutional Work, Probation and

(Continued on Page 17)

Rev. Robert P.

BARRY

CATHOLIC

CHARITABLE BUREAU

COMPLIMENTS OF

The Trawler "Boston College"

ATLANTIC & PACIFIC
FISH CO.

21 Fish Pier

Boston, Mass.

Liberty 4816

Cambridge Club

(Continued from Page 3)

In 1932 with Francis J. De Celles as president, the Club sponsored a debate between Boston College and Oxford University. This debate aroused great interest and a capacity crowd attended.

At the Annual Banquet held in February, 1933, Charles G. Harrington was elected president. This banquet marked our Silver Anniversary. Some of the invited guests were the Very Rev. Louis J. Gallagher, S. J., the Rev. Jones I. J. Corrigan, S. J., State Treasurer Charles F. Hurley, and all the past presidents of the Club. The Annual Ball held in the Spring was well attended; and from the proceeds a check was sent to the Boston College Athletic fund which needed financial assistance. The club has always helped from time to time by donations for advertisements, the various publications at the Heights.

The following year William F. Foley was chosen president at the Annual Banquet. Among the speakers at this dinner were Father Gallagher, Father Corrigan, the Rev. Francis J. Sullivan, S. J., State Treasurer Charles F. Hurley, Attorney General Paul A. Dever and Judge Emmet Delaney of Chicago.

President Foley inaugurated our Annual Communion Breakfast when on December 9 the Club attended Mass at St. Paul's Church, with breakfast immediately following at the Hotel Continental. In 1935, Francis J. McCrehan was elected at the Annual Banquet to direct the organization for that year. No one who attended that dinner, will ever forget the eloquent tribute that Edward Sullivan paid to our late beloved Dean, the Rev. Patrick J. McHugh, S. J.

On November 10, at St. Peter's Church the club received Communion in a body. After the Mass, a breakfast was served at the Hotel Continental. The principal speakers at the breakfast were Senator David I. Walsh and the Rev. Francis V. Murphy, D. D., pastor of St. Peter's

(Continued on Page 17)

PATRICK J. GILL

Manufacturer and Designer of

CHALICES

CIBORIA and CRUCIFIXES

387 Washington St.

Boston

Salem Chapter

The Salem chapter of the Boston College Alumni Association entered the second year of its existence with the holding of the club's annual banquet at the Hotel Hawthorne on Wednesday, October 30, 1935. Retiring President Walter A. Conway had appointed a committee headed by Chairman Patrick T. Fallon, and the banquet was a very enjoyable, successful affair.

The guests of the evening were our Alumni President Dr. C. T. O'Connor and the Rev. Martin P. Harney, S. J. Dr. O'Connor outlined his plans for the ensuing year and asked for the cooperation of the local organizations in his program. Father Harney also discussed the Alumni Association and set forth his conception of what it should mean to a B. C. man, its aims, and its possibilities for service in many directions. He wove into his talk in a very interesting manner an account of some of the historic spots he visited on his recent European trip.

(Continued on Page 21)

CAMBRIDGE CLUB

(Continued from Page 13)

Church. Besides the Annual Ball, the Club also held a very successful New Year's Eve Dance. Following the custom established by Mr. De Celles, we sponsored the Boston College-University of Princeton Debate.

John Lacey Delaney was elected president for the present year. The activities for this year began on February 15 when our annual banquet was held as a reception to John M. Tobin, past president of the Alumni Association and former president of the Club, who was recently elected assistant superintendent of the Cambridge Schools. The Rev. Jones I. J. Corrigan, S. J., was among the invited guests. Father Corrigan has attended every banquet of the Club for the last twenty years. At the banquet a resolution was adopted unanimously by the Club commending his Excellency, Governor Curley on the wisdom of his appointment of James G. Reardon, '23, to the office of Commissioner of Education for the State of Massachusetts.

Mr. Delaney and a group of the members made a week end retreat on April 3 at Bellarmine House, Cohasset.

The retreat, which was so successful will be an annual affair henceforth.

The Club is to sponsor the Boston College-Holy Cross Debate on Thursday evening May 7, at the Hotel Continental. Mr. Delaney has planned many activities for the remainder of the year including the Annual Ball which is to be held May 15 at the Hotel Continental.

No history of the Club would be complete without mentioning William J. Hopkins who has been our treasurer since 1914, and John I. Garvey who for many years served the Club as secretary.

This briefly is a history of the Boston College Club of Cambridge. Lack of space does not permit the mentioning of the many loyal members of the Club who have given much time and effort to all the activities which the organization has sponsored, and without whom the Club could not have for so many years carried out so successfully, the original purpose of the Club "to foster in all legitimate and practical ways the interests of Boston College."

The Cambridge Club is sponsoring the B. C.-Holy Cross Debate, Thursday, May 7.

Annual Ball of the Cambridge Club on May 15 at the Continental. One of the big social events of the year. Don't miss it.

John J.
CONNOLLY
UNDERTAKER

1409 Washington St.
Boston

Compliments of
WILLIAM P. HERLIHY
Landscape Gardener
564 Huron Ave. Cambridge

COMPLIMENTS OF
HOTEL
SOMERSET
COMMONWEALTH AVE.
BOSTON

COMPLIMENTS
OF
Lalime & Partridge
FORD V8
1255 Boylston Street
Boston, Mass.

Dorchester Chapter Starts Season Sponsoring Boston College Debate

Monsignor Haberlin and Daniel J. Gallagher Aid
Reorganized Unit of Alumni by Donations --
Further Activity Planned

With the start of the New Year the Boston College Club of Dorchester swung into action with a meeting at the Dorchester Evening Centre at which Dr. C. T. O'Connor, the president of the Alumni, was the principal speaker. The club sponsored a very successful debate between the Marquette Debating Society of Boston College and the Hughes Debating Society of Fordham University. The verdict of the judges unanimously favored Boston College.

At a meeting held February 28 it was decided to hold a communion breakfast. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of John A. Ecker, chairman, assisted by Charles J. Leonard, Francis A. Murphy, to whom great credit must be given, assisted by the officers of the club. The Mass was celebrated at St. Peter's Church, Meeting House Hill, in Dorchester Sunday, March 15, at 9 o'clock at which about 125 received Holy Communion. Monsignor Richard J. Haberlin, D. D., V. G., celebrated the Mass. Breakfast was served immediately afterwards at the Francis Kane Post hall. The toastmaster was Gerald F. Coughlin.

Monsignor Haberlin was the principal speaker and gave a most inspiring talk both at the Mass and at the breakfast in both of which he pointed out the necessity of the formation of such clubs as the Boston College Club of Dorchester and in addition gave a most generous contribution to the club and urged every B. C. man in Dorchester to join the chapter.

Daniel J. Gallagher, B. C., '92, in like manner generously contributed to the club. He also lauded the club in its purposes and promised continued support. Among the other speakers were Rev. Martin J. Harney, S. J., Dr. Cornelius T. O'Connor, John F. Monahan president of the club, and John C. Holbrow, secretary. A resolution made by Charles Leonard that the Monsignor Haberlin be made an honorary member was unanimously adopted and he graciously accepted.

(Continued on Page 25)

Frederic J. Crosby,
Inc.

Crosby Memorial
Home for Funerals

867 Beacon St.
Kenmore 1089

10-12 Warren St.
Highlands 6000

JOHN C. HOLBROW, B. C. '24

F. W. HOLBROW CO.

FLORISTS

Member of F. T. D.

FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

Our Only Store
301 HARVARD STREET
Dorchester

Geneva 2095

THE BOSTON COLLEGE CLUB

-- Of --

CAMBRIDGE

underwrites this space in the Alumni Review to bring to the attention of the alumni the necessity of prompt payment of alumni association dues.

Every Boston College man should be an active, paid up member of the alumni association, if the organization is to accomplish its purpose; the solidifying of the Alumni Association of Boston College

Please send your dues of $2.50 and correct mail address, at once, to Charles J. McGill, Executive Secretary, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Compliments of
Samuel Narcus

STATIONER

92 Washington St.
Capitol 8720

230 Washington St.
Lafayette 1038

COMPLIMENTS

C. A. GATES
and CO.

168 Dartmouth St.
Boston, Mass.

New School

(Continued from Page 13)
Parole Work, and Social Research. The courses will be open to men and women.

During the first year the registration of the day courses will be limited to forty full-time students. Candidates for the school must present a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college, with an undergraduate background of social and biological sciences.

President Cites Need

"The establishment of the Boston College Law School," said Father Gallagher, "marked a distinct advance in the development of Boston College. The professional prestige which the Law School now enjoys is the result of building along lines of professional standards. What the Law School has contributed in the field of legal education, the new School of Social Work will undoubtedly contribute in the field of social work education. There is a real need at the moment of synthesizing Catholic principles and social work techniques so that Catholic young men and women may be able to bring trained minds and courageous hearts to the solution of the many social problems that are vexing the entire world today."

With regard to the appointment of the new dean, Father Gallagher said, "I am very happy to be able to announce Father McGuinn's appointment as dean of the new School of Social Work. His training and background have fitted him for the difficult task of organizing the school. His wide acquaintance with the problems and his practical experience in New York social work should give Father McGuinn an ideal equipment for the duties he has assumed."

Father McGuinn is a native of Worcester, and was graduated from Holy Cross in 1919. Entering the Society of Jesus in that year he pursued his studies at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Weston College, and Woodstock College, Maryland. From 1925 to 1928 he was an instructor at Boston College and Moderator of the Fulton Debating Society. He made his theological studies at Weston College from 1928 to 1932. During the subsequent three years he made post-graduate studies at Fordham University, engaging in a wide variety of social work activities, and he received his doctorate in Social Work in 1935.

Had Extensive Career

Father McGuinn has served as a member of a number of national committees. He carried on research projects in various institutions and formulated a program for Child-Caring Institutions which was recently published by the New York State Department of Social Welfare.

Father McGuinn announced that the faculty of the new school will be composed of teachers professionally qualified in their respective fields. A bulletin will be issued shortly outlining in detail the various courses and specific agencies where field work programs will be carried on in conjunction with the class room instruction.

Applications for admission must be filed by June 30, 1936. Application blanks will be sent on request. Further information may be had by writing to the Dean, Boston College School of Social Work, 126 Newbury st, Room 304, Boston.

James Droney and W. M. Burns, members of the Lowell chapter, recently went South with the B. C. tennis team. Droney was acting captain in place of Vincent Mahoney another Lowell boy, who could not make the trip. Burns was junior manager of the team.

Dr. William Green of the class of 1932 is interning at St. Joseph's Hospital. He is not a native of Lowell but has made some real friendships with the members of the Lowell chapter.

ATTENTION ALUMNI

The official Boston College ring, approved by the authorities, may be purchased by any member of the Alumni with their official year of graduation on the shank of the ring.

We will be glad to quote prices on the different qualities at your request.

H. W. PETERS, Inc.

5174 Washington Street Boston, Mass.
Telephone PARKway 4300-4301

Dues Are Now Payable

It should mean a great deal to every graduate of Boston College to be a paid-up member of the Alumni Association. The amount of the annual dues is so small that no man can truthfully say he cannot afford it. The Association has done a tremendous amount of work in the past year, and can and will do more, if the alumni will send in their dues.

Men who have had unbroken records for years have continued to pay their dues and support every activity of the association. It is our hope that every loyal B. C. man will send in his dues of $2.50 at once. Don't wait for two or three bills to be sent. Help us in the work of making our Alumni Association strong and powerful.

Please tear out the form below and mail it, with $2.50 to the office of the Alumni Association at Chestnut Hill. You will receive a receipt in the form of a dues card for 1936 and 1937.

To the Boston College Alumni Association,
Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Enclosed please find $2.50 for my dues for 1936-1937 in the Boston College Alumni Association.

Signed
Address
Class
Date

Charlestown Club

(Continued from Page 3)

B. C. as principal speaker; State Treasurer Charles F. Hurley, Toastmaster Peter F. Tague, Owen Gallagher, chairman of Board of Street Commissioners; State Insurance Commissioner Francis J. DeCelles; City Councillor Mellen of Charlestown. John F. Flavin was toastmaster Michael W. Doherty was chairman of the breakfast.

At present the club is mapping out plans for the Annual Spring Ball which will take place in May. Henry J. Brougham, '33, has been designated chairman. The Dance Committee has engaged the services of Kenny Reeves and his band, a musical favorite at numerous college affairs during the past few years. Working ardently in the interest of its success are: Edward McColgan, William A. Harrington, John F. English, William F. Dinn, Thomas McTiernan, Charles E. Anadore, George W. Shinney, Melvin A. McCully, John F. Flavin, Michael W. Doherty and others of the committee.

Other events to follow in the course of the year will be a Moonlight Sail, and a formal dance which will be conducted some time in the early fall.

Joseph Green is employed by the State Racing Commission.

Frank Driscoll is a submaster in a Boston school.

Joseph R. Cotter, '30, is continuing his medical work at the Carney Hospital.

Martin Higgins is employed by the Federal Income Tax Dept.

Gordon Irons is a teacher at Mechanics Arts High School.

Richard J. Gorman, '31, is an interne at a C. C. C. camp in Vermont.

Edward J. Sullivan, '34, is with the Moore and McCormick Steamship Company.

Arthur Tierney is faculty director of athletics at Revere High School, also a teacher of mathematics.

George W. Shinney, '32, is employed by the State Dept. of Conservation.

Edmund Mattock, '31, is attending Suffolk Law School.

Frank Monahan, '32, is with the Boston American.

Joseph Lyons is an attorney for the Boston and Maine R. R.

James Holland is a teacher-coach at Mechanics Arts High.

Frank Abate, '31, is an interne at the Quincy Hospital.

Edward A. Aaron, '32, is a teacher of Commercial subjects at Charlestown High Night School.

Henry J. Brougham, '35, is a teacher of Latin and English at Brighton High School.

Thomas J. McTiernan, '35, is an accountant in Boston City Hall.

Matthew L. Crehan, '32, is attending Harvard Law School.

James J. Driscoll is a teacher at the Lewis School in Boston.

Edward McColgan, '35, is engaged in medical studies at B. U.

William A. Harrington, '28, is connected with a Boston brokerage.

John F. English is in the auto repair business with his brother.

Annual Ball of the Cambridge Club on May 15 at the Continental. One of the big social events of the year. Don't miss it.

B. C.-H. C. debaters clash in the Hotel Continental, May 7. Don't miss the battle.

WILLIAM T. BULGER, Inc.

FUNERAL SERVICE

TELEPHONE SOUTH BOSTON 0504--3164

591 EAST BROADWAY

SOUTH BOSTON

Class of '24

During the past year the Class of 1924 held its twelfth Annual Communion Breakfast at the Heights, Sunday, April 19. Fr. John A. Tobin, S. J., a former teacher of the Class, celebrated the Mass and was one of the main speakers at the breakfast. Among the other speakers were the Rev. Louis J. Gallagher, S. J., rector, Dr. Cornelius T. O'Connor, and John F. Monahan. The toastmaster was Anthony E. LeBlanc. The committee in charge of the breakfast consisted of John F. Monahan, president of the Class, John C. Holbrow, vice president, Edmund H. Barry, secretary and Anthony E. LeBlanc.

Peter A. Alemi is teaching in Dorchester High School for Boys.

Sylvester J. Connolly is connected with Jordan Marsh Co.

Joseph A. Turnbull is a Federal Bank Examiner.

Eugene J. Campbell and Edmund A.

Berger are connected with the N. E. Tel. Co. in Boston.

John C. Burchill and John A. Sullivan are teaching in Woburn High School.

Richard J. Cusick is selling paint in Western Massachusetts and Vermont.

Joseph T. Kelly is secretary to Senator Walsh.

Raymond Sullivan, honorary member of the Class, is now an Assistant Attorney General of the State of Massachusetts.

Beginning with September the
(Continued on Next Page)

Sullivan and Hopkins Co.

BUTTER
EGGS

MEAT
POULTRY

Catering to

SCHOOLS, CHURCHES & CONVENTS

2 Faneuil Hall Market

BOSTON

Tel. Cap. 7380

COMPLIMENTS
OF

HOTEL KENMORE

Commonwealth Ave. at Kenmore Square

Salem Club

(Continued from Page 14)

An election of officers for the year 1935-1936 followed and resulted in the selection of president, Patrick T. Fallon; vice presidents, William J. Koen and Richard J. Cruise; secretary, Lawrence J. Fennell; treasurer, Rev. Richard J. Hawks; chaplain, Rev. Edmund J. Haynes, and directors, Leo H. Tracy, Max Kowalski, and Walter A. Conway.

Plans for the year made at subsequent meetings resulted in the presentation of the Rev. J. F. X. Murphy, S. J., speaking on "Red Mexico," in the Young Men's Catholic Temperance Society hall on Sunday, January 26, 1936. A large gathering heard Father Murphy describe the historical background of the present religious controversy, and trace its development up through the centuries to recent times.

A group of musical selections by Miss Dorothy C. Ahearne, well-known Salem coloratura-soprano, accompanied by George H. Murphy, supervisor of music in the local school system, completed the program. The committee, in charge of Chairman William J. Koen, consisted of Lawrence Fennell, Thomas Allen, Philip Heffernan, Leonard Carr, John Daly, John Sheedy, Max Kowalski, Francis O'Rourke, John Markey, Carl Thayer, Richard Cruise, and Patrick Fallon.

Five weeks later, a debate between the Fulton Debating Society and Dartmouth College was held on Sunday evening, March 1, in Academy Hall of the famous Peabody Museum, Salem. Boston College presented Timothy Sullivan, '37, and Mark Dalton, '36, on the negative and Dartmouth presented Herman Dock, '36 and Arthur Ekirch, '37, on the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved: That a Constitutional Amendment be passed giving Congress the power to provide for the regulation of all industry and commerce within the national boundaries."

The Boston College team decisively defeated Dartmouth in a brilliant debate. Attorney Michael J. Reardon presided, and the committee in charge consisted of Chairman John J. Connelly, Jr., Edward McCabe, Edward Tellier, James Connolly, Paul Stacey,

CLASS OF '24 NOTES

(Continued from Page 20)

Class intends to hold monthly meetings throughout the year.

Henry E. Lannon is connected with the Public Works Dept. of the City of Boston.

Thomas S. McIntire is engaged in business with the McIntire Brass Co. in Boston.

William J. Kelleher is following the profession of law in Boston.

John A. Barry is in the steamship and tourage business in Boston.

Carl Thayer, Thomas O'Connor, Joseph Pszeny, William Donahue, William Koen, Richard Cruise, and Patrick Fallon.

Plans are now under way for the annual Communion Breakfast and for a spring dance, to be held May 1. Then interest will be centered on cooperating with the general Alumni Association in plans for the annual Alumni Day in June. P. T. Fallon

COMPLIMENTS OF MODERN PRINTING

28 Union Street, Newton

Cen. New. 4530

LOWELL CLUB

(Continued from Page 9)

By agreement it was voted to hold meetings once a month, the last Friday of each month. The next meeting will be held April 24. Joseph A. McAvinnue, '19, was named as program chairman to arrange the programs for the various meetings. George H. Keefe, '22, newspaperman, was authorized to prepare articles on the activities of the club for the Alumni Bulletin.

Attorney James H. Riley, president of the Lowell chapter, was the guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Lowell Boston University Club which was held in Liberty hall. The two previous years the presidents of the Dartmouth and Harvard Clubs of this city had been the guests of the B. U. Club. President Riley commented on the friendly relations which exist between the Boston College and the Boston University students in Lowell.

There are six Lowell young men who are members of the senior class of Boston College this year. They are Vincent Mahoney, David Bailey, Francis Maguire, John Banks, J. William Gilcreast and Louis Sicard.

A successful Easter formal was conducted by the Lowell Boston College Undergraduate Club April 14 at the Andover Country Club. Recently formals conducted here by the undergraduates of colleges have not been successful financially but the annual Easter affair of the Lowell boys proved to be the exception. The undergraduates were well supported by the Alumni. Mayor Dewey G. Archambault, a member of the Lowell chapter, had received a special attraction from the hands of President Vincent Mahoney and attended with Mrs. Archambault, the first lady of the city.

Henry J. Heaps of the class of 1927, who was one of the most popular Lowell students ever to attend classes on the Heights, died recently. He was ill but a few months following his return from Atlanta where he had been in the hotel business. The Lowell chapter was officially represented at the funeral by a delegation which consisted of most of the officers of the chapter as well as members. It was the first break in the ranks of the chapter by death for a number of years.

Joseph McAvinnue, '19, was chairman of the recent Boy Scout Court of Honor at which three Boy Scouts were awarded their Eagle badges.

Edward Harper O'Day, varsity third baseman for several years and who was graduated in 1927, has his Lowell High School baseball candidates outdoors training for another successful season. Last year Lowell had one of the best teams in the state and was only defeated in the finals for the state high school championship by Somerville after defeating all its other opponents.

Arthur Heaphey, brother of Jack Heaphey, all-America centre of several years ago and Matt Heaphey, '22, of Beverly, has been stationed at the Lowell office of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. for the past four years. He recently announced his engagement to a Worcester girl. George H. Keefe, '22.

B. C.-H. C. debaters clash in the Hotel Continental, May 7. Don't miss the battle.

The Stoneham Press

Frank J. Gallagher, '20, Proprietor

Printer of The ALUMNI REVIEW

Stoneham, Massachusetts

Telephone Stoneham 0170

Fifty Years...

of service in behalf of people who desire—who demand—excellence at honest and reasonable cost, have moulded the character of this organization.

J. J. Good & Sons

FUNERAL HOME

336 Dudley St.

Boston

Ralph C. Good, B.C. '25 James H. Good, B.C. '29

TAXI

HANcock
8700

I. T. O. A.

Direct Phone to All Districts Means
Rapid Service Everywhere

BOSTON MINIMUM
RATE TAXI

BEWARE OF
IMITATING COLORS

Independent Taxi Operators Association
18 Troy Street, Boston

MALDEN-MEDFORD CLUB

(Continued from Page 11)

A few years ago, the undergraduates of Malden-Medford got together and agreed to combine. They all felt that if they wished to attempt any large social event they would need more active members than each club could boast of. The Alumni were still half-heartedly interested. Many attempts had been made to interest the Alumni in the doings of the Club, but these attempts met with little success. Finally, through the efforts of Fr. Rector, Rev. Russell Sullivan, S. J., and Rev. Martin Harney, S. J., (to mention a few) the Malden-Medford club became more than a social organization, it also brought into the scope of its activities, the cultural side. The plan of sixteen years ago, that is, to work for the advancement of Boston College along every line of endeavor was beginning to sprout again. Some Alumni became active members again, others were interested but had not become active. The club itself took on a new life.

New Life in the Club

It was not until this year, however, that a determined effort was made to solidify the Alumni and to narrow that breach between the undergraduate and the Alumnus. The first few meetings gave out some hope, but it was not until the Alumni President, Doctor O'Connor made the suggestion that we became a Chapter of the Boston College Alumni. We could do this by adopting the constitution drawn up by the Alumni Association. The benefits to be derived were too great to be passed up, and so without a dissenting vote, the Malden-Medford B. C. club came to an end and in its place emerged the Malden-Medford Chapter of the Boston College Alumni.

The fact that we are at last receiving recognition from the Alumni body; the fact that we can participate in Alumni affairs, such as election of officers, etc., has had a tremendous influence in interesting many of the Alumni in the affairs and motives of the Club. We are starting slow. The work of re-organization has required much labor. Missionary work has been going on and will continue to go on until every Alumnus of this chapter has been seen and talked with. It is a slow process but we have great faith that it will bear fruit in a few years. One of the most encouraging signs that our work has not been in vain, was the fine turnout at our First Communion Breakfast held on March 22, 1936.

We, of the Malden-Medford Chapter express our sincere thanks to Fr. Rector, Father Harney, S. J., and Doctor O'Connor, and to all the others who have assisted us in any way whatsoever, and we promise them, our whole-hearted cooperation. We hope that by our work and example in the community, we may be influential in helping to make Boston College bigger and better every year.

Annual Affairs Held

The chapter meets every second Tuesday of the month. In November of last year we held our annual fall dance at Putnam House, Danvers, with Joseph Cosgrove of '36, as chairman. On March 22, this year, our annual Communion Mass was celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church and a Communion Breakfast followed. Charles Driscoll of '29 was chairman. The breakfast was held at the Girls' Catholic High School in Malden with nearly 100 members present. Father Gallagher, Father Harney, and the Rev. James A. Mulligan, ex-'36 spoke to the members, as well as Mr. Bart Griffen, assistant editor of the Boston News Bureau, Frank McCrehan, varsity baseball coach, William J. Sullivan, president of the chapter and Doctor O'Connor, president of the Alumni Association. The toastmaster was John O'Loughlin, librarian at Boston College.

On May 29, our annual spring dance will be held at the Andover Country Club, with Raymond Perry of '35 as the chairman. In June we will hold our annual election of officers for the coming year, and another year of activity for the college and the association's benefit will get under way. The present officers of the club are William J. Sullivan '25; Raymond J. Perry, '35, first vice president; Joseph Cosgrove, '36, second vice president; John Carroll, '36, secretary and Joseph Killion, '36, treasurer. The executive

(Continued on Next Page)

Wollrath & Son, Inc.

FLORIST

139 Beaver St.

Waltham, Mass.

American
Supply Co., Inc.

THE
HOUSE OF SATISFACTION

801 and 803 Washington St.
Boston, Mass.

CLOTHING — JEWELRY
RADIO FURNITURE

CASH AND CREDIT

COMPLIMENTS OF

Owen A.

Gallagher

Malden - Medford

(Continued from Page 23)
board consists of A. Roy Tribble, Jr., '28; Warren P. McGuirk, '29, and James Earls, '34.

Some of the names of our members follow. You will notice the list is headed by Father Gallagher's name. He is a charter member of our chapter, and we feel it is a high honor to have such a distinguished man as a member, as Father Rector went to Boston College from Malden.

Malden Members

Fr. Louis J. Gallagher—President and Rector of Boston College
William S. Dempsey, '20—Head of Physical Education Department Lincoln Junior High School, Malden
Warren P. McGuirk, '29—Head Football Coach and Teacher of Science Malden High School
Joseph K. Delaney, '25—Still "tootin" the sax in New York with one of Gotham's leading orchestras
Joseph Tribble, '24—One of the Exide men and one of the assistant editors of bulletin of Catholic Alumni Sodality

Arthur J. Breslin, Jr., '33—Undertaking Business in Malden

James B. Connors, '28—Member of Common Council in Malden

John W. McDevitt, '29 — Recently elected Principal of Lincoln Junior High School in Malden

Frank Murphy, '29—One of ace reporters for United Press in Boston

Charles Driscoll, '29—One of staff of First National Bank of Boston. Contemplating matrimony about June, 1936.

Raymond J. Perry, '35—Scholarship at Heights in Chemistry. Working for an M. S. degree

George E. Murphy, '34—Seminary St. John's

Walter J. Kelliher, '24—Submaster at Dorchester High for Boys, Teacher of Latin

Robert E. Pyne, '24—Submaster Boston Schools

George D. Yantes, '22—Teacher of English, Boston Trade School

Thomas J. Sullivan, '34—Teaching in Malden Schools

Medford Members

John W. Gahan, '25—Practising Physician in Medford

Leonard A. Morrissey, '22—Practising Dentistry in Medford

Myles T. McSweeney, '22—Feature writer on Daily Record

John T. O'Connell—Teacher of Latin in Medford Schools. Holds A. B., A. M., Ph. D. degrees from B. C.
Francis Greelish, '26—Garage business and completing Law School studies

Henry D. Buckley, '31—Ex-football star now coach at St. Clement's in Somerville

(Continued on Page 25)

ALUMNI ADVISERS

Members of the Alumni Association who are willing to serve as alumni advisers for undergraduates, are urged to write to the President of the Alumni Association. The officers of the association are anxious to have by next October an alumnus who will act in this capacity for small groups of the Freshman and Sophomore classes in the college.

== Trees at Boston College ==

IN CARE OF

Bartlett Tree Expert Co.

NEW ENGLAND OFFICE

795 Memorial Drive

Cambridge, Mass.

ELLSWORTH, ME. -- MANCHESTER, MASS. -- PITTSFIELD, MASS.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN. -- WESTBURY, L. I. -- DANBURY, CONN.

STAMFORD, CONN.

Dorchester Club

(Continued from Page 15)

At the executive board meeting March 19 it was decided to hold a meeting of the club April 17 in Dorchester High School, Codman Square. It was also decided to appoint a committee to select a meeting place for the ensuing year beginning with the fall meeting at which time it is hoped to establish the practice of holding regular monthly meetings of the club. John A. Ecker and Gerald Coughlin were appointed as the committee.

In accordance with the plan suggested at the communion breakfast, the board decided that a bridge and whist party should be held at Whiton Hall, Centre st., Dorchester, Friday, May 1, in an endeavor to start the building of a scholarship fund to be known as the Boston College Club of Dorchester Scholarship. Members of the alumni are urged to give this movement their support. The committee in charge is composed of Arthur L. Evans, Robert O'Hayre and Edward F. Murphy.

The officers of the club are John F. Monahan, president; Arthur L. Evans, vice president; John C. Holbrow, secretary; Edward F. Murphy, treasurer. The board members are John A. Ecker, Francis A. Murphy, Jeremiah W. Mahoney, John P. Curran, Charles J. Leonard, Raymond T. Harrington, Gerald L. Coughlin, Robert O'Hayre, Paul Power and Henry Leen.

MALDEN - MEDFORD

(Continued from Page 24)

Thomas J. O'Brien, '27—Teaching in Medford Schools

Francis T. Sullivan, '31-'32—Teaching in Medford Schools

George H. Nicholson, '34—Harvard Law School

John J. Kickey, '34—Teaching in Somerville Schools

Wm. A. Ward—One of the old guard and at the same time, one of the most conscientious workers in this new chapter. Quiet and unassuming, but very active and effective

George A. Kelley, '21—Real hustler and an ardent booster for B. C. A livewire and hard worker for the success of the Chapter.

John M. O'Loughlin—Past Grand Knight of Santa Maria Council, No. 105, K. of C. Librarian at Boston College

Compliments Of

SWEENEY-LYNES

and COMPANY

Boston, Mass.

Eloquent symbols in light and color, of Charity towards God and man. Nave clerestory windows, Saint Dominic's Church, San Francisco. Charles J. Connick of 119½ Hancock Street, Boston, will be glad to send you published articles, color prints and photographs related to his work in Stained Glass.

COMPLIMENTS OF A FRIEND

Everybody
likes the New CHEVROLET because it is the only complete low-priced car

MEN and women . . . young folks and grown-ups . . . people who live in large cities and people who live in smaller communities . . . all like the new 1936 Chevrolet.

They are placing this beautiful new Chevrolet first in their favor because it's the only complete low-priced car.

That, as you know, means it's the only low-priced car with New Perfected Hydraulic Brakes and a Solid Steel one-piece Turret Top, for greatest safety! The only low-priced car with the Knee-Action Gliding Ride*, Genuine Fisher No Draft Ventilation and Shockproof Steering*, for maximum comfort and driving ease! And the only low-priced car with a High-Compression Valve-in-Head Engine, giving the finest combination of performance and economy!

You, too, want all these modern advantages in your new car. Insist upon having them. Buy a new 1936 Chevrolet—the only complete low-priced car.

FOR ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

NEW PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES
IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*
HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
MOTORS INSTALLMENT PLAN—MONTHLY PAYMENTS TO SUIT YOUR PURSE • A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

SOLID STEEL ONE-PIECE TURRET TOP BODIES
GENUINE FISHER NO DRAFT VENTILATION
SHOCKPROOF STEERING* • GENERAL

*Available in Master De Luxe models only. Knee-Action, $20 additional. Chevrolet Motor Co., Detroit, Mich.

Chesterfields . . .

*a corking good cigarette . . .
they've been hitting the trail
with me for a long time*

They are milder . . . not flat or insipid but with a pleasing flavor

They have plenty of taste
. . . not strong but just right

*An outstanding cigarette
. . . no doubt about it*

M. B. CO
JUN 1939
BINDERS

BOSTON COLLEGE
ARCHIVE

